MAY/JUNE - OHS Canada's Young Workers Supplement

Perfectly timed with the onslaught of young workers hitting the marketplace, OHS Canada's Young Workers supplement is your chance to reach those who hire, train and manage young workers. Combined with sponsorship opportunities in OHS Canada's Stayin Alive, Canada's most used young workers handbook, our Young Workers supplement is an excellent opportunity to expose your brands & services to the next generation of users and buyers of your products too.

SEPTEMBER - 2016 BUYERS' GUIDE ISSUE

OHS Canada Magazines continues to deliver the only annual Buyers' Guide dedicated to the Canadian safety market. As Canada's only print and online Buyers' Guide for oh&s products, services and suppliers, our September/October issue has an extended shelf-life and is referred to time and time again, generating more frequency and brand retention. Advertisers in this issue reach more decision-makers and buyers – more often – just in time for the budget and buying planning season.
